

I am opposed to any effort to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law.
I sometimes work nights and must take the phone off line to get rest.
I do not appreciate interference during meals and family time.
The bankers have other means to contact me for business matters.
Indiana's telephone privacy law is very popular with Hoosiers.